The morphine did not work yesterday.
Krishnan Nair was born in Trivandrum on March 3, 1923. He completed primary education in Trivandrum and received his bachelor's degree in Malayalam literature from the University of Kerala. He then served as a schoolteacher in various institutions and institutions. He was a professor at the Kerala University and held various positions in the Malayalam literary scene.

Krishnan Nair was known for his contributions to literature, education, and culture. He authored several works, including 'Swapanamandam' (1976), 'Sundaramandam' (1977), and 'Chithrashala Prikas'.

On February 23, 2006, Krishnan Nair passed away due to a heart attack. His contributions to literature and education will be remembered for generations to come.
"RIVER VALLEY DIGITAL LIBRARY
empowering the author ..."

The Vallabh Dharmotsava Foundation has been digitising the remains of 19th-century authors in the Madras presidency and is currently digitising 238 books (119 books a month). In this context, the annual volume:

- Indian Rupee: 238
- US Dollar: 10
- Canadian Dollar: 10
- Euro: 10
- Australian Dollar: 10
- Saudi Riyal: 20
- Bahraini Dinar: 20
- Kuwaiti Dinar: 20
- Qatari Riyal: 2

The foundation is also working on expanding the number of readers by creating a database. They are also encouraging further participation. The primary objectives are:

- To make the books available in all smart devices.
- Registrations are encouraged. (Registration fee is Rs/USD/KD).
- Groups and friends can register.

Contact: info@sayahna.org

Vallabh Dharmotsava Foundation, Jagati, Tirunelveli 627014